

Versatile collection of high quality Westphalian summer auction with 46 young talents

Münster: For the 16th Westphalien Summer Auction Handorf Extra, the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch e.V. has put together a highly interesting collection. The lot contains 34 dressage and ten show jumping horses as well as two ponies. Like the previous foal auctions, this riding horse auction will be held online. The horses can be tried out at any time from June 3 onwards after arranging a personal appointment. The special presentation on June 8 will take place without spectators and will be broadcast by ClipMyHorse.tv.

For the 16th summer auction of the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch e.V. a high quality and yet very diversified lot is available. Young dressage talents, experienced jumping aspirants or the top partner for the hunter or leisure sport - the collection has the right horse for all ambitions. The auction is opened by the Fürstenball/Ehrentusch daughter Faible (breeder: Heinz Rudde, Gronau-Epe). A dressage horse with strong movements that will make the hearts of everyone beat faster. This bay mare is equipped with a lot of tact and high rideability values. The auction of the 34 dressage horses will be followed by two hopeful riding ponies with head numbers 35 and 36. The auction of the ten show jumpers follows. Here Darah makes the start with the head number 37. The stunning black Dibadu L/Cornet Obolensky daughter (breeder: ZG Dammann/Graf, Ascheberg) is not only impressive because of her appearance. Under the saddle of Marie Ligges, the mare won a qualification test for the Bundeschampionat last year. Her natural caution, safe assessment and an impressive jumping routine make this six-year-old a highly interesting offer in this lot.

The auction horses will move into their boxes on Tuesday, June 2, at the Westfälisches Pferdezentrum in Münster-Handorf. From June 3rd onwards, the riding horses and ponies can be tried out by individual appointment with our customer advisors. The extra presentation on June 8th will be broadcasted live on ClipMyHorse.TV. Bidding on the auction candidates will be possible on onlineauction.westfalenpferde.de from 9 June at 9 am. The online auction will end on Sunday, 14 June at pm. "We are very pleased that both our breeders and our customers have such great confidence in us. Only through this trust can our online auctions be so successful", says auction and marketing manager Thomas Münch.
