

Son of For Romance I dances to top price Popular youngsters and broodmares for dressage

Münster: The auction horses at the Westphalian Youngster and Broodmare Auction were highly sought after. A talented For Romance I/Real Diamond son aroused the highest desires. The 24 sold youngsters cost an average of 20,406 Euros. The five broodmares sold were worth an average of 8,700 Euros to the breeders.

The 36 youngsters with dressage pedigrees were highly sought after by the international customers. The most popular was a For Romance I-son with the head number 12 (breeder: ZG Prudenz Frühling, Großefehn; exhibitor: BG Marvin Klausung and Thomas Niebel, Diepholz). His dam, the Hann.Pr.St. Rhianna by Real Diamond, is the half sister of Revitavet Capato by Contendro, who is successful in international eventing competitions in the USA and comes from the same breeding house. First Love is a highly likeable eye-catcher in a dark jacket. Equipped with excellent movement quality, he captivated the customers. Even before the bidding started, the black bay was highly traded. In the end, he was sold to a competition stable in Baden-Württemberg for 47,000 Euros. 39,000 Euros was the price for the beautiful Sir Heinrich/Florestan son Sportsfreund (breeder: Friedrich Möhle, Hille; exhibitor: IB Berger Reit- und Turnierpferde GmbH, Sulzbach-Rosenberg). This stunning brown is the half-brother to Zarathustra MT, who was licensed in Münster-Handorf in 2016 and changed to the ownership of Sissy Max-Theurer, he will move into his new home stable here at the gates of Münster.

Of the seven broodmares offered, five found a new owner this evening. The most expensive offer was a broodmare for big dreams. Let's Dream RB by L'Espoir/Fidermark (breeder: Reiner Bockholt, Steinfurt; exhibitor: Dr. Monika Hilgers, Emsdetten) changed hands for 13,000 Euros. The dark bay is in foal to the winner of the KWPN licensing 2019 Le Formidable. The dam of this mare, St.Pr.St. Fantastica, was the winner of the Elite Mare Show 2002. She is the dam of the licensed Sir Fidergold by Sarkozy and the Vice Bundeschampionesse, as well as meanwhile S-winning St.Pr. and performance mare Sunshine by Show Star.

A total of 29 of the horses on offer changed hands this evening. On average, the customers invested 18,388 Euros. Almost 50 percent of the youngsters sold cost 20,000 Euros and more. The interest from abroad was once again great. Eleven of the horses will enjoy their further training outside of Germany.

"We are very pleased with the overall result of this auction! To offer more than 40 horses for sale at the end of a strong auction year was a big task, which we mastered with bravura", Thomas Münch and his team were pleased about the successful course of this auction. Once again this year it is "Every week on Monday..." at the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch e.V.. In exactly one week the last online auction of the year will take place. 14 jumping youngsters with international pedigrees and six broodmares in foal to top sires will be up for sale. The final bid up in 2020 will start on 21 December at 7.30 pm. The collection can already be viewed with complete information, photos and videos at onlineauction.westfalenpferde.de. Bids can be placed from December 17.

The attached photo can be used free of charge in connection with the PM. Picture credits: Reckimedia. BU: Top priced horse First Love by For Romance I/Real Diamond