

Westphalian online auction for foals predisposed for jumping

Collection of 15 highly interesting foals now online

Münster: In times of the Corona crisis the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch e.V. is relying on online auctions. The first collection can be found on the online auction website as of today, Monday, April 27. The lot represents 15 foals with predisposed for jumping with international pedigrees from highly interesting dam lines.

The pedigrees of the collection of the 1st Westphalian Online Auction for foals predisposed for jumping is read like the crème de la crème of international show jumping. Top sires for show jumping performance blood can be found on both the sire and dam side of these hopefuls. The dam lines of the foals are highly interesting: They enclose licensed stallions and horses that are highly successful in international show jumping courses. Bids for the 15 offspring can be placed from Wednesday, April 29, 9 am, until Monday, May 4, 7.30 pm, at onlineauction.westfalenpferde.de/en. "After the success of the online auction for riding horses at the beginning of April, we are now looking forward to starting with the foals online. In our collection of foals predisposed for jumping you will find the latest top genetics from secured dam lines - probably the highest guarantee for a top jumper of the future", auction and marketing manager Thomas Münch is pleased to announce.

With international performance blood the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch e.V. starts this first online foal auction of the year 2020. With the head number 1 a descendant of Taloubet Z/Cornet Obolensky opens the auction. With Thor, Gretel Schulze-Buxloh is exhibiting a colt whose dam line has been maintained for years on the family's farm in Hamm.

The Belgian stallion Eldorado van de Zeshoek, who is internationally successful in show jumping up to 1.60 m, and the Westphalian star sire and team Vice-Champion at the European Championships, Comme il faut NRW, are represented by three offspring in this collection.

Successful dam lines

The dam of the head number nine, Emilio L by Eldorado van de Zeshoek /Cassini I (breeder: Thomas Lüke, Steinheim) was successful up to advanced show jumping level. Django Unchained T also descends from the direct line of the head number five Take on me by Tangelo van de Zuuthoeve/Eldorado van de Zeshoek (breeder: Frank Timmreck, Hohenberg-Krusemark). The Diarado son is at home in the stable of World Championesse Simone Blum and has already celebrated international successes. Edgar Langen, Remangen, brings a Zirocco Blue offspring to the virtual Westphalian auction site. The stallion out of Verb.Pr.St. Baghira de Rouet by Balou du Rouet has performance blood! The full sister of the grey colt is Zita Blue, who is successful in international sport under the saddle of Janne-Friederike Meyer-Zimmermann.
